

The leaflet, produced by Kinnesswood in Bloom, was designed by a young local graphic designer and edited by a local journalist graduate from the village. It captures in a unique way the history of the village as it takes you round on foot. It has an insert for a children's walk with items to spot on the way.

It is currently on sale at Loch Leven Larder, Lomond Country Inn and the local village shop at £2.